

Naysayers Only

Finn Vigeland

ACROSS

1. Guacamole go-with
5. [No way!]
9. Prior to
12. Fairy tale demon
16. Like a person represented by a blue, pink, and white flag
17. Well-known for the wrong reasons
19. SEALs' branch
20. Left ventricle's outlet
21. Camera for a photo shoot with Dracula, in brief?
23. Turn the ___
24. Nixes
25. "Is it worth the risk?"
26. Start of a dessert-craving chant that sounds like the dessert
28. "Happy Days" mom, to the Fonzy
30. Scrap, as plans
31. Marketing strategy that promotes just the hit song, not the whole album?
36. Chunk of dough
37. "Monster" named for a Southwestern river
38. Average
39. Grandson of Adam
41. Again
43. Goof off on the job
46. Spitting sound, in cartoons
48. Exclamation on "The Simpsons"
49. Purse part
51. Barn topper
52. Like much presidential campaign merch, for optics reasons

©CTFYC, 2020

54. What Anderson Cooper uses to season his virtual meal?
59. Worth consideration
62. "Avatar" language
63. Farm song refrain
67. Korean automaker
68. Go crazy
71. Tyra Banks-coined portmanteau for how to pose for a picture using your peepers instead of your mouth
73. Austin festival of arts and ideas, for short
74. Barbershop sound
76. Terrible ___
78. Ivan the Terrible, for one
80. ___ Dameron, Oscar Isaac's role in "Star Wars" films
81. Bidder's comment at the "Magic Mike" auction?
86. Cry of disgust
87. Where to find 94-Across
88. Megastar who dropped her eponymous 2013 album with no advance marketing
90. Country neighboring Sudan
94. Grand Prix entrants
96. Hand-me-down
97. Door-knocking initiative ... or what to do for 21-, 31-, 54-, and 81-Across to make sense?

99. Like the New York Times crossword
100. Butter alternative
101. Spanish "How are you?", formally
102. Keebler crew
103. Not sure how to decide
104. "Chernobyl" ailer
105. Many a go-go dancer
106. Some microbrews

DOWN

1. Food item crossed with a donut in a 2013 craze
2. Gluten-free pub order
3. Summer office hire, often
4. "Here's some important info...", in a tweet
5. George Harrison's second US #1, after "My Sweet Lord"
6. Med sch. subj.
7. NorCal gallery that had a monumental Richard Serra exhibition in 2016
8. Thin and flimsy
9. ___ favor
10. Regretted
11. Canadian gas brand
12. Grabbing drinks for the first time, perhaps
13. Phrase reclaimed by queer people to refer to brunch discussion topics, say
14. Airstream driver, for short

15. Whom Rochester marries, in literature
16. "Monsieur Hulot's Holiday" director/star
18. Longs for
22. Left-wingers
24. "That's a ___ argument"
27. Yellowish bagel variety
29. Farmer's yield
32. Like the Greeks, to early Christians
33. OK boomer (more than OK, actually... it was quite fast!)
34. Late-night text to initiate a booty call
35. "I feel that!", in modern usage
36. Third word of many limericks
40. ___/her (one way to indicate one's pronouns)
42. Baylor University city
44. Quaint lodging
45. Many TikTok stars
47. "Makes sense now"
50. Gentle touches
53. CT scan alternatives
55. Busybody
56. Non-stick cooking spray
57. Remove from a residence
58. Doughy treat that can be stuffed with pepperoni or veggies
59. Authorizes
60. It's done in France

61. Close one
64. Like bougie tastes
65. Type of triangle or trapezoid
66. Run a tab
69. Brief marking that a teacher might make on a sentence, not unlike this clue, with syntax that is rather long-winded
70. Work with a meter
72. Abates
75. Army division
77. Boom box
79. Bit of hope
82. Drive-___
83. Sighs wearily
84. For no profit
85. Pronoun that often gets contracted
89. Brand that could sate a person yelling the chant that begins at 26-Across
90. Acronym for the "Grand Slam of Show Business"
91. Move, in real estate jargon
92. Engrave
93. "She runs the gamut of emotion from ___" (quote attributed to Dorothy Parker about Katharine Hepburn)
95. Caesarean rebuke
98. Medical plan option, briefly
99. Org. that stops traffic?